CLOSER LOOK: Missed the board in both turf dashes so far against the MOC $40k level of company; gets some class relief however most of this field has the same running styles and are also dropping in class, Hernandez gets the call and could get the jump from that insi de post.

Showed speed and wilted in all three career starts so far, now takes the steep drop in class looking for a more suitable level of competition; will face other front runners but may have more impact facing easier and going this 5 furlong distance, sir e World of Trouble has a success rate of 18% with turf sprinters (AWD 5.4 furlongs).

Rank on the lead last out when routing for the first time setting an unsustainable pace; sticks on the turf and cuts back in distance to a sprint where trainer Steve Owens has good stats, takes a steep drop in class which may be a more appropriate spot f or him if he can keep it together, Campos is back for another try and this may just be what he wants to do. -Sheri Riddoch

Outrun in both career starts so far, switches back to the lawn while getting a little added ground; jockey switch again to Omar Moreno and together with the trainer - strike at 25% this meet for an ROI of $7.42, could pick up a minor share.

Consistent fringe player hasn't been able to find that extra gear to propel him into a top three finish; tries the outer course for the first time which may just be the answer, Munger gets back aboard and warrants a look with those steady Beyer numbers a s this field has many questions.

Solo MTO entrant, had a much improved effort on the switch back to the Tapeta; 3yr old gelding by Flameaway would benefit from an honest pace as he has a more closing/stalking style, regular rider Bynoe back in the irons. -Sheri Riddoch
