KENTUCKY DOWNS 2025

COADY MEDIA

Flirting With Time, entrenada por Jore Sharp, obtuvo una Victoria por 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ cuerpos durante la temporada 2024 de Kentucky Downs.

Por David García

Cuando Isle of Capri (Munnings) en ese entonces potra de dos años de edad, conquistó un Maiden Special Weight de $170,000 en la última carrera de la temporada 2024 de Kentucky Downs, se activó una especie de conteo regresivo para la campaña del año 2025. El tiempo, siempre inclemente ha hecho su trabajo y este jueves 28 de agosto, tendremos nuevamente carreras de caballos en el peculiar escenario situado en la localidad de Franklin, en Kentucky.

Un circuito y un ambiente como ningún hipódromo de Norteamérica puede ofrecer. Kentucky Downs, construido lejos de la meca del hipismo como lo es Churchill Downs en Louisville, ofrecerá este año siete fechas de carreras con unos premios que hacen mover a cualquier profesional, llámese jinete, entrenador, propietario, criador, veterinario, mozo de cuadra, entre otros.

Esta pista es tan especial, que en algunas ocasiones nos hace ir al pasado y vivir el hipismo como en el principio del Siglo XX, cuando a veces un mismo caballo competía dos veces el mismo día o en jornadas diferentes. En pleno año 2024 del Siglo XXI, disfrutamos por ejemplo a Goliad (War Front) y a Tiztastic (Tiz the Law) verlos correr dos veces en el mismo meeting y ganar. Otros también participaron en dos ocasiones con pocos días de descanso y salieron airoso como Irish Aces (Mshawish), Axthelm (Into Mischief), Ramsey Pond (Divisidero), Black Iron (Constitution) y Mean Eileen (Twirling Candy), solo por mencionar algunos de esos valientes pisteros.

Al estilo del viejo continente

Correr en Kentucky Downs es para muchos caballos un esfuerzo doble de lo que generalmente realizan en cualquier pista con superficie plana y esa es una de las principales características que resaltan de este escenario, el cual no podemos decir que es un óvalo, pues su primera curva es muy pequeña y la última es bien amplia. En el trayecto, como en Ascot en el Reino Unido, los purasangres se consiguen con subidas, bajadas, orificios y si llueve que es algo poco común porque el sol y el calor extremo distinguen sus jornadas hípicas, el panorama se vuelve más interesante.

Es una configuración interesante que posee el trazado de Kentucky Downs, cuyos jinetes participantes deben estar mucho más alerta de lo que tradicionalmente se encuentran cuando van en carrera. Los eventos que van en una milla y media (2,400 metros) por ejemplo, se inician desde un punto de la recta final, pero al ser pruebas de 6 furlongs (1,200 metros) la situación cambia y literalmente deben salir comenzando la gran curva final y en descenso, algo similar a la parte de la pista de grama que tiene Santa Anita Park.

En cada prueba, se da la impresión de estar en un hipódromo de Europa como el icónico Epsom Downs, cuyo trazado es similar con la diferencia de que la pista inglesa no tiene primera curva y Kentucky Downs sí. La misma sirve para recibir a los competidores cuando salen de las pruebas de 1 5/16 millas (2,100 metros), como por ejemplo el millonario Nashville Derby Invitational G3T. Todos estos detalles que tiene la pista son factores de peso a la hora de narrar una carrera. Los relatores hípicos, siempre dispuestos y avezados con su respectivo material, deben tener binoculares de un gran alcance que les permita ver el accionar de los caballos en aquella lejana pero gigantesca curva final. Cuando el sol hace sus travesuras con las sedas de los jinetes, el reto es mucho mayor para los perifoneadores. No importa el idioma que estén describiendo, en la apreciación de ellos, este es el hipódromo más difícil para narrar.

Donde se respira hipismo del puro

Kentucky Downs no posee grandes tribunas como los hipódromos que estamos acostumbrados a apreciar y visitar. Aquí, todo es cercano y más familiar, pues la interacción que tienen los profesionales con el público, es incomparable y las carreras de caballos más allá de la apuesta, se convierte en un espacio para que grandes y chicos disfruten de la majestuosidad del purasangre. La cercanía es tal que, en la pequeña estructura donde se encuentran los medios de comunicación, los mismos pueden interactuar tanto con los jinetes y entrenadores, así como los comisarios, personal de la jornada y demás. En DRF en Español lo hemos vivido así y este año disfrutaremos nuevamente de esa calidez que proporciona, uno de los recintos hípicos que ha adquirido renombre en los últimos años por la calidad de sus competencias y grandes premios.

Las estadísticas más recientes

Correspondiente a la data generada de 2024, para los efectos de las distancias, los puestos de pista para una mejor contabilidad fueron agrupados de la siguiente manera: Puestos en carreras de 6 ½ y 7 furlongs; 1 milla y 1 milla 70 yardas y 1 5/16 millas y 1 ½ millas, esto sin tomar en cuenta la distancia de 2 1/16 millas en la que se celebró la Nashville Gold Cup Stakes del año pasado. Estas son las únicas distancias que se disputan en las pocas pero emocionantes fechas de competencias. Solamente como referencia podemos acotar que, en carreras de 6 ½ y 7 furlongs, el puesto con más victorias fue el 10 con 6 de 23 (26%), mientras que en eventos de 1 milla y 1 milla 70 yardas, el puesto 6 tuvo una estadística de 5 de 27 (19%) y por el lado más largo, las competencias de 1 5/16 millas y 1 ½ millas registraron al puesto 9 como el que más victorias tuvo con 3 de 13 (27%).

Los nombres de Michael Maker, Wesley Ward y Brendan Walsh resaltan por victorias en los cuatro últimos años en Kentucky Downs. Maker ha ganado desde el 2020, 29 carreras en esta pista, mientras que Ward y Walsh totalizan 22 fotografías. En cambio, en el panorama de los jinetes, la figura de Tyler Gaffalione "El Gobernador de Kentucky" ha sido la más notable en las cuatro últimas campañas.

Gaffalione, campeón estos últimos cuatro años (incluyendo el empate de 2024 con Irad Ortiz Jr.), está a una de las 50 victorias computadas desde el año 2020. El dominicano Joel Rosario con 26 y el propio Irad Ortiz Jr. con 29, son los otros que en ese periodo 2020-2024, figuran como los de más éxito en Kentucky Downs.

Millones por doquier

Como bien reza la promoción de Kentucky Downs, un monto cercano a los $40,000,000 se repartirán en las diferentes pruebas que tendrán lugar durante los días 28,30 y 31 de agosto, y 4,6,7 y 10 de septiembre.

Y es que desde las pruebas de

Maiden Special Weight como las que habrá en la primera fecha del jueves 28 de agosto, las cuales ofrecerán una bolsa de $170,000, la más alta para una carrera de purasangres debutantes y no ganadores en el continente americano, Kentucky Downs es sinónimo de dinero por donde quiera que se vea. Desde 1990 cuando cobró vida Kentucky Downs, siempre se procuró que el mismo fuera un sitio diferente e ideal con llamativas bolsas que atrajera no solo a los mejores caballos, sino también a muchos visitantes. Con los años y superados algunos obstáculos, el cometido se logró. Las miradas no solo de los hípicos de Norteamérica sino de los países de habla hispana donde nacieron algunos de los jinetes que tomarán parte esta temporada, se dirigen hacia este original hipódromo.

¡En tu idioma favorito!

Cuando el proyecto de DRF en Español vio la luz en agosto de 2020, uno de los primeros hipódromos que brindó su respaldo para difundir las carreras de caballos en Español fue Kentucky Downs. Desde ese entonces, la alianza Kentucky Downs-Daily Racing Form-DRF en Español ha rendido sus frutos y muchos pudieron vivir por primera vez en dicho idioma toda la acción desde su primera hasta la última fecha. DRF en Español tiene como CEO a Roberto Rodríguez, conocido también como "El Potro Roberto", el cual ha confiado en el talento del narrador de origen venezolano de nombre David Mérida, con más de 35 años en el oficio, para poder llevar la emoción furlong a furlong o metro a metro (con la medida que usted desee tomar), de cada uno de los eventos. Este año de nuevo DRF en Español, La Casa de los Hípicos de Habla Hispana, dirá presente con su despliegue técnico para llevar las carreras en exclusiva a través del Canal de YouTube del mismo nombre. Es un honor que dicha plataforma sea la voz en español autorizada, legal y oficial, de todo lo que sucederá en Kentucky Downs durante los días de actividad.
